What Computing looks like in EYFS

Areas of Study	3-4 year olds	Reception	40-60 ELG
	Knows how to operate simple equipment, e.g. turns on CD player and uses remote control. Shows an interest in technological toys with knobs and pulleys, or real objects such as cameras or mobile phones. Knows that information can be retrieved from computers. Responds to simple instructions. (CL) Is able to follow directions. (CL) Uses one handed tools and equipment. (PD:MH)	Completes a simple program on the computer. Uses ICT hardware to interact with age-appropriate computer software. Uses talk to organise, sequence and clarify thinking. (CL) Responds to instructions. (CL) Maintains attention. (CL) Shows increasing control over an object, e.g. computer mouse. (PD)	Children recognise that a range of technology is used in places such as homes and school. They select and use technology for particular purposes. Children follow instructions. (CL) Children handle tools effectively and show good control and co-ordination. (PD)